

Conference presentation

hosted by OVGU Graduate Academy

This is an action-oriented workshop led by a theater professional whose expertise is to help speakers convey meaning and relevance of the work and the core message of the speech. Repetition is an important aspect of the training to help participants strengthen the narrative, emotional tone and physicality of the speech to define and support the speaker's own dynamic style.

This workshop is aimed at doctoral candidates as well as postdocs. Details can be found here:
