LIN LEIBNIZ-INSTITUT FÜR NEUROBIOLOGIE MAGDEBURG

Career Talk

Jose Francisco Alfaro Sanchis

Clinical Study Manager II at Syneos Health, Spain

We are pleased to welcome back Jose Francisco Alfaro Sanchis, a former PhD researcher at the Leibniz Institute for Neurobiology (LIN), for an upcoming Career Talk!
Jose conducted his PhD research at LIN between 2012 and 2017 as a Marie Skłodowska-Curie fellow at Otto von Guericke University Magdeburg. Today, he works as a Clinical Study Manager II at Syneos Health, supporting AbbVie's international clinical development programmes.

In this talk, Jose will share his journey from neuroscience research to the pharmaceutical industry, introduce the clinical research landscape and explore the diverse career opportunities available to scientists beyond the laboratory.
